

HEART BED

Juliane Stiegele, UTOPIA TOOLBOX, D, 2019

A spontaneous action while passing through a Kafkaesque corridor in the basement of a hospital.

The corridor is used as a storage room for hospital beds.

People there work without daylight.

Coincidentally, I had some remains of red adhesive foil and nail scissors in my bag.

